

INFORMATION YOU MUST REPORT TO YOUR CASEWORKER

Because your household contains an Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents*, your household has two reporting requirements:

1. You must report when your household's total gross monthly income exceeds 130 percent of the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines for your household size. Count the amount of your income before any taxes or deductions are taken out. Compare this amount to the amount on the chart below. These amounts are effective for October 1, 2009 to September 30, 2010.
2. You must report to your caseworker when your work hours fall below an average of 20 hours per week or 80 hours per month.

You must report and verify these changes by the 10th day of the following month. For example, if your January work hours fell from 30 hours per week to 15 hours per week, you must report and verify this change by February 10. Changes may be reported by my COMPASS account, by telephone, by fax, or at your local county assistance office.

* Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents means you are:

- Able to work.
- Between the ages of 18 and 49.
- Have no children under 18 including other dependents such as nieces, nephews or grandchildren who live with you.

It is important that you report work hours. Your work hours may determine how long you are able to receive Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program benefits.

Number of people in your household	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Gross monthly income	$1,174	$1,579	$1,984	$2,389	$2,794	$3,200	$3,605	$4,010

 If there are more than eight people in your household, add $406 for each person to $4,010.

Determine your gross monthly income:

You can figure out your total household income for the month by adding up all the paychecks you received by using the gross amount (the amount before any taxes or deductions are taken out). You also need to include in the total any unearned income, such as Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, unemployment compensation or other benefits received for the month. Compare the total to the monthly amounts listed in the table above. If the total is more than the amount listed above for the number of people in your household, call and verify with your county caseworker by the 10th day of the following month. If the total is less than the amount listed, you do NOT need to contact your caseworker. Contact your local county assistance office for more information or apply online at www.compass.state.pa.us.
