

You Have a Right to Be Safe from Family Violence!

If you or your children are in danger of abuse, you may be excused temporarily from some public assistance requirements.

For more information, call the county assistance office at any time.

Your caseworker can excuse you from some of the public assistance eligibility requirements and provide names and telephone numbers of local agencies that can help.